Purpose of data processing and consequences of not providing personal data:

Photographs are taken for the purpose of reporting on the event on websites and in press releases of the Hanse-Wissenschaftskolleg. For photographs that do not show persons of contemporary history, have persons as an accessory next to landscapes or other localities, or photographs that reflect meetings, processions or similar events and their character, you will be asked for your consent in individual cases. In the event that no consent is given for these photo shoots or the consent is revoked, no disadvantages will arise.

In the case of announced live broadcasts and video recordings of events, you will be informed in advance. If you do not wish to be recorded, please contact us about this before the event.

Legal basis:

- Recordings that reflect the character of the event (overview recordings):

Art. 6 para. 1 lit. e in conjunction with. Art. 6 para. 3 DSGVO in conjunction with. § 4 para. 1 DSG M-V.

- For other shots, the photographer will ask you for your consent:

Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO.

Recipients:

Worldwide users of the online and print media of the Hanse-Wissenschaftskolleg.

Duration of storage:

Photos and video recordings for which consent was obtained because it was required will be deleted immediately upon revocation of consent. Otherwise, photos and video recordings will be stored until the purpose no longer applies.

Your rights:

- You have the right to receive information about the data stored about you and/or to have incorrectly stored data corrected.
- You also have the right to request deletion or restriction of processing or the right to object to processing.
- In addition, in the case where you have given consent to individual photo shoots, you have the right to revoke your consent at any time, whereby the lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent up to the revocation is not affected.
- You have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you believe that the processing of personal data concerning you violates the law.
- You have the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to the processing of data concerning you that is carried out on the basis of Art. 6(1)(e) DSGVO (data processing in the public interest).
